(1 Jun 1556). To Sir Nicholas Bacon, knight, i June, 1566. Showeth unto your lordship your orator Edward Mytton, otherwise Harpesfeld, of Weston under Lyziard, co. Stafford, esquire, that his mother Joyce Mytton, otherwise Harpesfeld was seised of land in Ryggeley, co. Stafford, which after her death about eight years ago descended to your orator as her son and heir. But divers deeds concerning the premises have come into the hands of Richard Weston, gentleman, who by colour of having them, shortly after the death of the said Joyce wrongfully entered into the premises and detains the profits of the same. Your orator prays that a writ of subpena may be directed to the said Richard Weston. [Chancery Proceedings Bundle 123. No 47] [SHC 1931 201]

Arches Court. Judgment of Divorce. Mytton v. Mytton. This was a suit promoted by the wife against the husband for a divorce, on the grounds of great cruelty and adultery. Sir J. Nicholl went over the facts of the case as stated in evidence, and said that the cruelty of the husband to his wife was seldom equalled. After having had intercourse with other women, and having contracted a loathsome disease, he had by violence compelled his wife to submit to him. Up to Sept. 1831 the wife had submitted to her wrongs in silence, partly owing to fear of her husband, and partly for the affection she owed her five children. In common sense and common justice the submission, after the wife knew of the actions of the husband, could not be considered a bar to the obtaining of justice by the injured party. In September in the year he had stated the husband had renewed his acts of adultery and cruelty, and, whatever forgiveness he might have obtained, this act on the part of the husband revived all former criminal acts in point of law. The wife then separated, and had very properly refused all solicitations to return to her husband. He considered that the wife had fully proved her libel, and he should not be doing justice if he did not proceed to pronounce the sentence of separation, as prayed for on the part of the wife. The learned Judge then pronounced for the separation. [Bell's Weekly Messenger No.1858, Sunday, November 13, 1831]

Captain Devereux Herbert Mytton, of Garth, Welshpool, died on Tuesday at the age of 78. He was one of the most prominent public men in Montgomeryshire and came of an old Welsh family. He was born in Bengal, where his father was a High Court Judge. He retired from the army, the 85th Foot, when he came into the family estates 40 years ago and devoted his life to the affairs of the county. He was Sheriff of the county in 1873, as many Myttons had been before him. He was Deputy Lord Lieutenant, Chairman of the County Council, Quarter Sessions, and Standing Joint Committee. He was also a member of many Welsh educational and other bodies. He was the leader of the Unionist Party in the county, and in 1886 and 1892 contested the county seat unsuccessfully against Mr. Stuart (now Lord) Rendel. Captain Mytton married, in 1873, Emma L., only daughter of

Mr. E. Storey, of the Madras Civil Service, by whom he had four sons and two daughters. [The Times, 17 Feb 1910]

Hereford. John Mitton, of Salop, armiger, was sued by Robert Hilliard, armiger, for a debt of £50, for which he had given his bond to him, and to Philip Leche, knight, now deceased, on 20th September, 5 H. IV. John appeared in person, and defended the action, and pleaded that at the date he had given the bond he was detained in prison at Leomyestre, in co. Hereford, by the said Philip and Robert, and others, and had given the bond through the duress and coercion of the imprisonment. Robert denied this allegation, and stated that on the date of the bond John was out of prison and a free agent, and appealed to a jury. The Sheriff was therefore ordered to summon a jury of the vicinage of Leomynstre for the Quindene of St. Hillary, m. 585, dorso. [?SOURCE]

(1775) Lincoln's Inn June 27 1775: Dear Miss Beech, The want of opportunity to disclose my sentiments to you was no small mortification to me during the latter part of my stay at Kingsley and I can say with the strictest truth that my mind has felt very little repose since I came to Lincoln's Inn. To relieve therefore that anxiety, I now take courage to adopt this mode of application and hope that no part of your family will take offence at the method I pursue. At present I can only express my most ardent wishes to find that no engagement prevents you from receiving addresses founded in the most perfect esteem. I had many opportunities of discovering my intention to your father but could not venture to do it without your permission. I shall be at Kingsley in about a fortnight and shall be peculiarly happy to demonstrate how much, how truly and how sincerely, I am, your real admirer and most obedient servant Thos. Mytton My best respects attend your family. Chester Sept 6 1775: Dear Madam, I must entreat your pardon for trespassing on your time and hope you will give me credit for the assertion when I say that no earthly consideration should induce me to take such a liberty did I not feel myself oppressed with an anxiety to make overtures that I flatter myself will be satisfactory to every part of your family, provided you will permit me to adopt the measure if I did not find in myself a riveted resolve to emulate the best of husbands I would scorn to advance a step in this business. My friends will not I am sure impute a want of veracity to me I trust I shall have the like credit from you when I appraise you that no news can be so welcome as the favour of a line advising me that I may without offending you pay a visit at Shaw and break the matter properly to your father. I took the liberty of enclosing a cover and again repeat that nothing can give me such pleasure as a favourable answer but if your resolution should be adverse it will even be a matter of the highest satisfaction to hear that Miss Beech is the happiest of her sex. I beg my compliments to all your family, I am with the truest and most sincere esteem your ever obedient and most humble servant. Thos. Mytton [Hillingdon (London) Family History Journal 41 (Mar 1998) 36-7]

[? (architect of Bearwood Church, Birmingham) c1920]

[? (as Stanley M, of 72 Primrose Lane, Hall Green, Birmingham) 1929]

MITTON, Edward Stanley (1880-) was born in Birmingham, Engl. on 6 August 1880 and educated at St. Edmond's College. He articed with the Birmingham firm of Ingall & Son (in 1897-1901) then moved to London to join the office of Herbert Bolton (in 1901-02). He was a precocious draftsman and delineator who toured the Continent and saw his sketches of Belgium published in 1903

(Builder [London], lxxxiv, 4 April 1903, 365 and plate illus.). He practised under his own name in Birmingham in 1904 and was invited by his former employer there to become partner in the new firm of Ingall, Son & Mitton (1905-07). In late 1907 he was brought to Toronto by Francis S. Baker and held the post of 'special designer' for only two months before an accident forced him to move to Vancouver to recover his health. He started his own office there in 1908 and opened a branch office in Victoria in 1911 (C.R., xxv, 20 Sept. 1911, 55). Mitton had a particular interest in the contemporary design of ecclesiastical buildings and wrote a lengthy essay on the subject (Canadian Churchman [Toronto], xxxv, 25 June 1908, 441). He was also a regular contributor of designs for "Country and Suburban Homes", featured in monthly issues of the Vancouver journal called Westward Ho! Magazine (Vol. ii, January to June 1908, and Vol. iii, August to November 1908). In 1910 he staged an 'exhibition of domestic arts' depicting many of his own designs for cottages, bungalows and residences in Vancouver (Province [Vancouver], 2 April 1910, 3). Mitton continued to practice there until 1914 but not information has been found on his activity after that time (biog. Who's Who in Western Canada, 1911, 287; E.O.S. Scholefield, History of British Columbia, 1913, 618-19; D. Luxton, Building the West: The Early Architects of British Columbia, 2003, 338-9, 512).

The house, completed in 1912, is also valued for its association with its architect, Edward Stanley Mitton. Although Mitton had a practice in Vancouver and Victoria for only six years (1908 to 1914), he designed over sixty buildings in British Columbia, including residences, apartment buildings and hotels, before returning to Toronto. His residential work was mainly in the British Arts and Crafts style, then the height of popularity, employing heavy rubble-stone foundations, half timbering, and rough-cast stucco, elements seen in this house and its landscape features. Mitton is recognized for his publications of house plans, 'Mitton Home Builder' in 1910, and 'Modern Homes for Modern People' in 1914, both of which sought to bring modern, well-designed house plans to the general public.

John Mitton, deceased, having purchased lands in Clonton, co. Salop., and being in debt for the whole purchase money, by articles of 14 April 1687 (in consideration of a marriage to be had between William, his son, and Alice Bollen) covenanted to settle one moiety to the use of the said William and Alice, and the other moiety to the said William, remainder to the heirs of William and Alice. By deeds of lease and release the tenements were settled to the same uses.

William Mitton, having borrowed £100, mortgaged the tenements to Bright, his creditor. This was not sufficient to pay the debts, and William Mitton absconded for three years. In October 1699 Petitioner agreed to pay £100 to settle Mitton's debts, and £123 to purchase in Bright's Mortgage which was forfeited. Mitton, in October 1699 conveyed his parcels to Petitioner, the mortgage being assigned to him.

*Mitton died in 1708 leaving issue John and Thomas. John, with Alice the widow, exhibited their bill in Chancery against Petitioner, charging that by the Marriage Articles the said William Mitton had no power to sell, and that Petitioner had obtained several conveyances by fraud. The Master of the Rolls on 13 November 1711 decreed that the limitation of the equity of redemption in Bright's mortgage was not voluntary, being founded on the Marriage Articles, and that the said John should be admitted to redeem, on payment of what Petitioner bona fide paid on taking in Bright's Mortgage with interest discounting the profits received by Petitioner, and that the lands should then be reconveyed. This decree was later confirmed. Petitioner claims that Mitton was tenant for life and had power to sell the estate. Prays the decrees be reversed. Signed by Petitioner. Countersigned. John Pratt, N. Lechmere, Jos. Girdler jun. Endorsed as read this day. Ordered an answer in 3 weeks.

(d) 21 June. Conusel called in Mr Serj Pratt opens the cause for the appellant. This was a decree of the Master of the Rolls and after confirmed by the Lord Chancellor, which decree we presume to say is erroneous. They read the fine. They read an Indenture. They read Edward Jorden's deposition. Sir Joseph Jekell heard for the Respondent. We hope this decree of the Master of the Rolls and the affirmation thereof by my Lord Chancellor will stand. Mr. Mead was also heard for the Respondent.

Thomas Floyd's Interrogatories also read. Jeremiah Brown's Answer read. Deed of the 2nd Nov. 1699 was read. Mr. Serj. Pratt was heard reply. Mr. Lechmere was also heard reply. Counsel withdrew. Ordered and adjudged that the petition be dismissed and the decree affirmed.

1. The entry on your D027 concerns William Mitton 1694-1757. I've looked up the entry in St Peter Hereford which clearly states William was "of Rickton in the parish of Stottesdon, and Elizabeth of the parish of St Owen (presumably in Hereford town). It was by banns. Recognize Rickton? Where his Uncle Benjamin Mitton lived at the time of his death in 1708.

On the 2d inst-. Mr. Abraham Mytton, skinner, Oswestry, formerly of Welshpool. [13 Jul 1831 Salopian Journal]

Will (St Asaph) Sarah Mytton of Oswestry spinster ... to friend Ann Mytton wife of Mr George Mytton of Shrewsbury ... niece Mary Jemima Littlehales ... to my friend Mary Anne Mytton daughter of [said George Mytton] ... residue to sister Emma the wife of Thomas Edward Littlehales of Worcester ... uncle Mr Samuel Roberts of Oswestry stationer sole executor ... dated 20 Sep 1855.

Proved by Samuel Roberts 30 April 1856. Under £200. [NOTE: Samuel Roberts probably b c1787 Dudleston, Salop and married 1817 Shrewsbury St Mary: Elizabeth Reynolds]

Reverend Samuel Roberts was born at Pontesbury near Duddleston Heath in Shropshire and christened on 17 September 1787 in the Independent Chapel- Nonconformist at Ellesmere. He was the son of Joseph Roberts, a farmer, and his wife, Sarah [nee Bickerton] who was one of an old family of Nonconformists of Duddleston in the village of Ellesmere, where the Roberts family later went to live. Samuel's sister, Sarah Roberts, married Nathaniel Minshall who founded, in 1809, the printing and publishing business in Oswestry that later produced 'The Oswestry Advertizer'. He was educated at Hoxton Academy and in 1814 became minister of the Congregational Churches at Woollerton and Wistanwick in Shropshire. He was ordained there on 13 October 1814. He left the Church in 1819 to take over from his brother-in-law, the printing and publishing business at 7 The Cross, Oswestry. In 1832 he moved the business to the newly built Albion Printing Offices at Bailey Head in Oswestry and in 1849 became the first printer and publisher of 'The Oswestry Advertizer' in association with his sons, William Whitridge and John Askew. He then retired from the business, leaving it in the hands of his sons and took charge of the Congregational Church at Preeshenlle in Gobowen, near Oswestry. In the 1851 census, he was a retired BOOKSELLER. [He died 3 Apr 1864 Caxton Place, Oswestry] Reverend Samuel Roberts died, at his son John Askew's home, at Caxton Place in Beatrice street, Oswestry, at the age of 76 years.

The earliest of our branch I trace back 200 years to the early part of the 18th century between 1700 & 1720. There lived in that time about the central part of Shropshire in what is usually called Corvedale a man named Mytton. That man was the father of our grandfather, he had several other sons and I believe daughters. Our grandfather John and two brothers Edward and William emigrated to South Shropshire. Two of them settled in the Parish of Burford, the third at Bayton near Cleobury Mortimer. ... Our grandfather John had 5 sons and two daughters. Edward, John, James, William (our father), Thomas, Sarah and Elizabeth. I first saw the light of day at Whatmore the 20th. of June 1832. Our father having married the previous year Miss Steward or Stewart of the Terrills. [Extract from a letter written 30 Nov 1915 from Los Angeles, California, USA by John Mytton (of CA, USA) 1832-1922 D223 to his sister Emma Clarke]

Mr. Arthur "Art" James Mytton of Medicine Hat, beloved husband of the late Mrs. Shirley Mytton, passed away on Friday, July 6th, 2012 at the age of 81 years. Art leaves to cherish his memory his children, Dale (Wendy) of Redcliff, Linda (Miles) Johnson, Ivan (Cheryl), Dwayne (Rhonda), and Neal, all of Medicine Hat; fifteen grandchildren, David, Darcy (Joanna), Danessa, Melissa (Andrew), Derek (Angelina), Eric, Nicole, Mathew, Sheena, Crystal, Kaylee, Jennica, Cheyanne, Rebekka, and Isaac; one great-grandchild, Bane; and one sister, Marie Lamb. Besides his wife, Shirley, Art was predeceased by one great-grandson, Bennett; and one brother, John. Art passed away the same way he lived....quietly and without much ado. Art was born at the start of the depression. Since he lived on a farm, he said he never really experienced the depression. He attended school to Grade 10 and learned to play his violin. Art was destined to take over the family farm, but destiny took him elsewhere. He met Shirley and life as a farm boy was to be no more. There were good times and hard times, but Art never veered off the path. He never said much, listened lots and gave an opinion when it was warranted. He loved to drive, fish, listen to fiddle music, play cards and watch his bird's antics. Art will be missed more than he ever imagined. We send you to Shirley and all those family members who have gone before you. [INTERNET]

MYTTON, John Edward: With sorrow, we announce the passing of John Edward Mytton 1932-2012. John was the youngest of 3 children, born to John (Jack) & Gwendoline Mytton on August 23, 1932 at Lacombe, Alberta. He grew up on a farm in the Milton District, northeast of Lacombe. John began school at the Milton school, up to Grade 3, just a ¼ mile north of their farm, then later headed for town to the Big School. He was surrounded by friends and family and all the day to day life until 1984, when his work moved him to Red Deer, Alberta. John started his working career in Lacombe at the bank, then moved on to automobiles, in the parts dept., retiring in 1996. He enjoyed gardening, golf, camping and working on cars. His primary passion was music, playing many different instruments, as a member of several bands and orchestras. In recent years, John was a familiar accordion player at jam sessions, lodges and nursing homes in Red Deer and surrounding areas. John frequently played at the Legion monthly Old Time Dance and at the Golden Circle. He will be missed by the home residents and his fellow players. John loved to be with family, taking grandchildren on trips to B.C. or camping out west. He attended lots of family parties and several reunions. John's fondest memories were of a motor trip to the USA with his father, John, in the early 60's, 2 motorcycle trips with Millie and the winter of 98-99 spent in California. John has been an Associate member of the Legion, Branch# 35 in Red Deer for many years. John will be sorrowfully missed and remembered by his loving wife Millie, his children Dale & Darlene Mytton, Red Deer, Darrell & Romy Mytton, Rocky MH, Leila Traynor, Edmonton, Kendal Mytton, Red Deer, Twila Mytton, Langley, B.C., Alex & Tracie Barker, Pine Lake, Allen & Louise Barker, Grande Prairie, Ivan & DeAnne Barker, River John Nova Scotia, Linda Stimson, Red Deer, Renne & Dave Thompson, Roblin, Ont., 26 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren. John is also survived by his sister Marie Lamb of Red Deer and brother Art Mytton of Medicine Hat. He was predeceased by both parents. Funeral Service will be held from Wilson's Funeral Chapel, 6120 Highway 2A, Lacombe, AB. on Friday, June 8th, 2012 at 1:00 PM. [INTERNET]

*The earliest of our branch I trace back 200 years to the early part of the 18th century between 1700 & 1720. There lived in that time about the central part of Shropshire in what is usually called Corvedale a man named Mytton. That man was the father of our grandfather, he had several other sons and I believe daughters. Our grandfather John and two brothers Edward and William emigrated to South Shropshire. Two of them settled in the Parish of Burford, the third at Bayton near Cleobury Mortimer. ... Our grandfather John had 5 sons and two daughters. Edward, John, James, William (our father), Thomas, Sarah and Elizabeth. I first saw the light of day at Whatmore the 20th. of June 1832. Our father having married the previous year Miss Steward or Stewart of the Terrills. Will (Hereford) ?date/6 Apr 1717 John Mitton of Boulthibroke ... father Thomas Mitton ... dau Mary ... son John (apprenticed to Walter Glover) (under 19) ... dau Sarah ... son Edward ... dau Elizabeth ... dau Martha ... son Thomas [hard to read]. Value £733/19/9

Boulthibroke(e) was a small place owned by the Lloyd family by the late 16C when Lewis Lloyd was Sheriff of Radnorshire in 1570-1. Dwnn i 254 (1597) gives a pedigree of the Lloyd family of "Bowlthibroke". Saxton (1587) and Speed (1646) apparently misnamed it "Fuldibrok". By 1758 Boulthibroke appears to have been owned by the Price family since in that year Anne dau and heir of Edward Pryce of Bodfach, Montgoms and "Boltibroke", Radnors is said to have married Belle Lloyd [BLG]. He appears to have built a large house at Boulthibroke which was 1812-5 rebuilt or remodelled by the architect Robert Smirke for Sir H.J. Brydges.

Died. At Clun aged 93 Martha relict of Mr J. Mitton whose death in September last dissolved a union between them of 75 years. [NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE March 1st 1816] [NOTE: Martha is recorded as aged 83 at burial in Clun PR and her marriage had lasted only 63 years. John is recorded as aged 97 in Clun PR but it seems likely that this estimate was also about ten years astray.]

(1715) Male violence and deprivation The marriage of Anne and William Mitton, solemnised in October, 1711 at Wombourne in Staffordshire, foundered on the husband's alleged cruelty. They separated four years later. (66) William's occupation was unstated but his father, Thomas Mitton, settled a real estate on him to the value of £60 and Anne's widowed mother, Ann Marsh, covenanted to William a real estate of an annual value of £20. The background to the events seems to have been an agricultural one, but William's absences from home may suggest a dual occupation [INTERNET]

(22 Sep 1969) Lizzie Humphries writes from "Westleigh", Wayend, Eastnor, Ledbury" ... [only family she knew] my brother's daughter, who lives up north. My brother Tom died at a cricket match. He had just finished his innings went to sit in the pavilion, and soon after passed away. He was 50 years of age. I will tell you what my Father used to tell us about the Myttons. Grandfather used to speak of Jack Mytton (as my Cousin Jack) and tell them about him. That was Jack Mytton of Halston Hall. The eccentric man. My Father never mentioned grandmother's relations. He said his Father went to Harrow School [probably here confusing Jack Mytton who did go to Harrow!] which is well known, also had a tutor. He offended his relations. They wanted him to be a clergyman, but he refused. "He wasn't going to be a parson for anyone." So he left London and walked all the way to Wales to an uncle's. ... But I think he must have gone in for farming, because my father said their farm went on fire in the night and they all had to get out in their night clothes. Grandfather went out to America. He had a Brother John out there. He also took Uncle Edward with him, Aunt Anne and Aunt Bess. Father refused to go because he didn't like the sea. Grandfather had been out in America about ten years when he came back to England to get a death certificate in Kington. ... He had some relations named Meredith in Kington. They lived up on the ridge (or some such place). Grandfather ... died as soon as he got back. He drank a glass of water and passed out. ... When Father was young they lived at Llangynllo. He was christened there. I knew my Cousin Emily Rees of Barry Dock. ... Jack Rees, Emily's husband, had a lovely tenor voice ... (signed) Lizzie Humphries

A CHILD BURNED TO DEATH AT MATHON On Wednesday information was received at the police station that Elizabeth Georgina Mytton the infant daughter of Mrs Alice Mytton of Morenda Cross, Mathon aged 2 years and 11 months had been burnt to death. On Tuesday [10 July] about three pm Mrs Mytton went to a neighbour's house to inquire the time leaving her daughter in the house. When she returned she found the child enveloped in flames took it to the pump and put some water upon it and then called to her neighbour for help screaming terribly. Dr Murphy was called in and while he was dressing the child's injuries it died. [WORCESTER JOURNAL 13 Jul 1889]

Ann Mitton Richards is the sister of William Mitton. He was on the same farm square in Union Grove, Whiteside, IL. His daughter, Mary was widowed shortly after she had Matilda and I assume a marriage to her cousin, John was arranged. [INTERNET, unsourced]

John Richards was born in Radnorshire, Wales, in 1791. During his residence there he was married in 1824, to Miss Ann Mitten, a native of the same place. At the age of 39 he concluded to change his place of residence, and with his wife came to the United States, and located in Ohio, where he remained four years. In 1836, he came with his family to what is now Union Grove township, making the journey by way of the lakes. While on lake Erie the vessel in which they were making the trip was wrecked, and the family barely escaped with their lives, losing all their money and goods, except one trunk, and the garments they were clothed in. Mr. Richards made a claim on section 34, and until his death, which occurred a number of years ago, devoted himself entirely to farming. He was highly respected, and enjoyed the esteem of all who knew him. Mrs. Richards still survives, and resides with her daughter on the old homestead. Their children have been: Margaret, born in 1825, and died in Wales; John, born in 1828; William, born in 1831; Richard, born in 1835; Eliza, born in 1838. John was married in 1848, to Mrs. Mary Swarthout; children; William E., George, Mary, Linda, and Lewis. William was married in 1859, to Miss Margaret Savage; children: Anna, Raphael, Delbert, and Mettie. Richard was married in 1862 to Miss Luceba Hopkins; children: Alice Jane, and Rosa Rebecca. Eliza was married in 1854, to Lester Wells, who is now dead; children: Royal, Almena, Eveline, and Ralph. [INTERNET, unsourced]

I am writing for my friend Laverne, whose great grandfather was WILLIAM THOMAS PUGH born about 1842 in Wales. He married Sally Ann Childress, the daughter of John and Elizabeth Childress (possibly from Ireland?) in Buckingham, Virginia. Their son, STEPHEN PUGH was born in 1871 in Virginia. Perhaps Laverne's ancestors are related to my great-great grandfather John Pugh born 1820 and his brother Thomas Pugh born 1814 in Llanddewi Ystradenny, Radnorshire Wales. Their father was Thomas Pugh born about 1790 whose father was thought to be William Pugh. Their mother was Sarah, born about 1795 whose father was thought to be Edward Mitton of Llanbadarn Fynydd, Radnorshire. Any information greatly appreciated. Sincerely, Karen Lantz (1616/7) George Cleeve and Thomas Lewis both appear, taxed together as vintners in the 1616/17 Shrewsbury tax roll, and were probably, at least initially, friends in Maine.

*(he may have emigrated with his father-in-law [to be] who is said to have been in partnership with Thomas Lewis of Shrewsbury whose wife Elizabeth was a daughter of Roger Marshall of Shrewsbury c1550-1612 and Catherine Mitton A017h dau of Edward Harpesfield LATER Mytton of Weston-under-Lizard, Staffs Esquire c1512-a1591 A017

In 1682, died Elizabeth Harvey, the only daughter of George Cleeves. She came from England with her father probably in 1637, and was either then or soon after married to Michael Mitton. She was the last survivor of the first settler, and had been through scenes of great suffering and sorrow. She had buried two husbands and three adult children, one of whom, her only son, was killed by the Indians, and the lives of two of her daughters, the wives of the Bracketts, were probably shortened by their captivity. Two daughters only survived her, Elizabeth, the wife of Thaddeus Clark, and Martha, the wife of John Graves [Graves was living in Kittery in 1712, aged about sixty-seven. He moved to Little Compton, R. I., where he died, leaving one son and two daughters.] neither of whom, that we are aware of, has posterity now residing here. The descendants of her daughter Mary, the wife of Thomas Brackett, are numerous among us. Mrs. Harvey had seen the town which on her first visit was an entangled forest, inhabited by wild beasts and savages, become the seat of civilization and prosperity, and holding forth the promises of future greatness."
